NO SWEAT

YOU CAN FIGHT
THEM TOO!

No Sweat is a grassroots campaign committed to fighting sweatshops and building solidarity between workers.

Working with trade unions and garment workers organisations we sell union made t-shirts and hoodies, using the profit to support workers in struggle through our Garment Workers Solidarity Fund.

THIS IS SOLIDARITY IN ACTION.

The workers who make our shirts deserve nothing less than a living wage and safe working conditions. But many big names are falling short.

It's time every band and festival put their ethics where their mouth is and sourced merch responsibly.

Time to clean up our scene.

GIVE SWEATSHOPS THE BOOT!

Punks love to talk about Unity and DIY, but does that hold up when the shirts on our backs are printed on the spoils of worker exploitation?

If you're a band, artist, or anyone with a reason to print a t-shirt, it's time to switch to a label that puts workers before profit. It could be No Sweat, it could be someone else. Whatever you choose, let's make ethical shirts the standard.
